Last Saturday, Beng Kiat and Lek Jien went for a movie at a cinema. They were accompanied by Beng Kiat's and Lek Jien's mother. Beng Kiat's father helped to buy the tickets through the Internet a few days earlier.

There were many people at the cinema that day. However, since they had already pre-purchased the tickets, they did not have to queue at the ticket counter. They only needed to scan the printed e-tickets at the checkpoint. They also had the best seats in the hall because they could select them before everyone else.

After the movie, Lek Jien's mother bought them ice creams and doughnuts. They all had a wonderful time.

Question 22

Read the dialogue below and answer the questions that follow.

Fauzan was eating his sandwiches with Raju at the canteen. Raju seemed to be in pain and did not touch his food.

Fauzan : Raju, are you all right? You have not eaten the fried rice that you bought.

Raju : I have a toothache. I don't dare to drink, let alone eat anything.

Fauzan : How long have you had the toothache?

Raju : Actually, it has been a while. I have been ignoring the pain, but today it's worsened. I can't take it anymore.

Fauzan : You really need to see the dentist.

Raju : I don't want to. I'm really scared.

Fauzan : You don't have a choice, Raju. Only a dentist will be able to fix your problem.
